premium. As far as we know, there is only one lot in the market offered below 101. The aggregate amount paid in on the loan at the Subtreasury, is $850,000. There have also been some Treasary notes sent in exchange." Advices from the South, referring to the decline in the receipts of cotton, intimate that they are not due to the usual causes, but that in many parts the planters are withholding their supplies, in view of the political uncertainties of the day. The effect of this policy, pursued for a few weeks, would be severely felt both on the New York and the Liverpool markets, and would probably lead to very grave inconvenience.

Letter from the Northern Neck of Virginia. Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

RICHMOND Co., Oct. 29. -On Tuesday last. the first day of our Circuit Court, B. B. Douglas (Breck, Elector) and Joseph Christian, (Bell) met at Warsaw in discussion. Each spoke an hour and a quarter and rejoined in half hour speeches each. Both made good speeches, and the Middlesex Senator more than sustained the reputation which he gained by "killing the oyster fundum". These gentlemen were listened to with great attention and gave much satisfaction to their respective partisans. On Saturday last "the Richmond County Home Guards," quite a handsome rifle company, gotten up mostly in consequence of the Harper's Ferry raid, turned out at Farnham Church, in the lower part of the county. and their visit was honored by the attendance of Mr. B. B. Douglas, who, as I hear, was especially invited by a captain of a Light in accepting this call the Alexandrians would Boat on the Rappahannock river; and after the drill, Mr D. made a speech against time. of three or four hours, though Mr. Sener thirteen years, and the longer he remains and auxious to get "into the ring." After gregation and the citizens generally appear various solicitations and the expression of to be. They would be very loth to give him much auxiety on the part of the small audi- up .- Clarke County Con. ence, Mr. S. was allowed a very short time, of which he made good use, in a sensible and weil delivered address. He was frequently kept poking Breck. "in the short ribs." .-The time was soon called upon S., when D. rejoined, and there was such a confusion and fuss, that one might have reasonably concluded, that the "irrepressible conflict" had commenced. One man got struck on the nose and so the first blood (that of a Bell and Everett man) was shed for the Union and drawn by an "awful Breekite." No serious damage was done, and I dare say all present went home with the same wishes and intentions towards the Candidates for the Presidency with which they started from home. unless a few Democrats determined to vote for the "Little Giant."

A majority of the attendants at this great exhibition were Bell and Everett men. Yours, in the true faith,

I would not be forgetful of woman's proper sphere and influence but the sickening pressure upon my heart constrains me for once to give expression to the thoughts which so disturb, the forbodings which so distress. Disunion! How heart sick'ning the sound! Would that I could never hear it more Would that men would take a proper stand point and calmly view the consequences, so far as may be seen, of so horrible a deed as the sundering of the ties of common brotherhood which have so long, so sweetly bound us together: we cannot forsee them all, but enough we may see to cause us to shudder and our hearts to sicken within us .-What is man that he thus presumes to try to take the reins of government out of the hands of the Almighty, and dash our beloved coun-Baltimore, Oct. 31 .- Flour is dull; Howard try to destruction? Surely our nation is appointment. City Mills $5,59. Wheat dull drunk with prosperity, and in madness is rushing on to desolation and ruin.

Women of America, what can we do?-May we not do a little? Where are our husbands, fathers and sons? Scattered all o'er this glorious land of liberty which was purchased by the blood of our brave forefathers, and now likely to be shivered at the cost of their own life's blood. Can we bear it? Are we prepared to see brother armed against brother? Father's hands imbued in children's blood, and our daughters slaves to men who know no love to their country, or their God? about 2500 head, and the market closed at prices | Most justly are we bound, we think, from taking a personal part in elections, but just is our rejoicing that God Almighty sitteth upon His Throne, and governs the Universe. and that His mercy seat is ever accessible. Here we may come, and be it our pleasure day by day to draw very near thereunto, and in faith importunate may we be enabled to plead for deliverance from the impending

While we mourn the ultraism of both north and south, we would be hopeful still. We will cherish the belief that there are still remaining Union lovers enough to save the Union. Now we would have them appoint, and observe a season of humiliation before God, of fasting and prayer, and may we be heard, protected, and saved.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING .- The Breckinridge wing of the Alexandria Democracy was addressed last night, at Sarepta Hall, by H. C. McLaughlin, esq., of Washington city. At the conclusion of Mr. McLaughlin's speech, the Hon. Mr. Aiken, (not of S. C.,) addressed the meeting. The Hon, gentleman is certainly most elaborately informed upon statistical politics, and the machinery of campaign tactics. His sympathies were evidently with those who have invested more than love of country in the approaching elec-tion. Mr. Rose, of New York, followed with some remarks.

REV. MR. WALKER .- Rev. Cornelius Walker, D. D., Rector of Christ Church. Winchester, has been called by the Vestry of Fairfax Parish to the rectorship of Christ Church, Alexandria. As the boats detained by a sunken craft near Williamsport are now coming in rapidly, the tolls will probably amount this month to about the same as in September, that is about $30,000.

Speech of Mr. Crittenden.

St. Louis, Oct. 30th .- Senator Crittenden addressed a large audience, composed of men of all parties, at the Court House, last night. He eulogized Douglas as a national man, a statesman, and for his course in opposition to Lecompton, and urged the Union men of all parties to vote for Mr. Bell as the only candidate whose success would give peace to the country. He could see no remedy whatever in dissolving the Union, or seceding from it, though the Republican party may elect their President. We can out-vote them in the National Legislature and prevent harm from being done. The South can find constitutional safety in Union, and preserve that greatest of blessings for this country. He concluded by saying that it would be his prayer that this Union may last beyond any Tragedy in Boston &c. Boston, Oct. 30 .- This afternoon J. G. Hernandez, a Spanish peddler of fancy goods fired two pistol shots at Miss Fanny May. who had been employed as his bookkeeper. Leather about it, except the Band that drives | and when discharged, he fired a shot into the Machine. It makes no Noise. It makes his own body. Miss May was slightly wounded, Hernandez, it is supposed mortally. He has a wife and children. The supposed cause of the tragedy is unrequited and jealous attachment toward Miss May, who is a respectable and handsome young woman.

Southworth Barnes, a leading merchant and well known citizen of Plymouth, committed suicide yesterday by drowning .-Cause, mental depression.

> Disunion Projects at the South. Augusta, Ga., Oct., 31 .- A dispatch from

J. J. Seibles, E. A. Banks, A. Elmore, L. D. Hollowguist and W. Garrett from Montgomery Ala., says The Breckinridge minute men held a meeting here last night, when a open and avowed preference for Lincoln was declared in order to break up the Union. Mitchell the seceding Delegate from Charleston came out boldly for disunion.

Resolutions were passed declaring in favor of an immediate dissolution in the event of
